

I'm taking licks but I haven't been knocked out
I'm making hits that feel a day late and a dollar short
I'll hock-a-loogie when you want the spit shine
I've been through Hell but a Hell of a life

It's a pretty penny for a broke ass, joke that never caught a b reak

But got a call back to even give a shit about it
A good for nothing deadbeat trash, if you ask me
You'll probably never see another human like me

It's a pretty penny for a broke ass, joke that never caught a b reak

But got a call back to even give a shit about it
A good for nothing deadbeat trash, if you ask me
You'll probably never see another human like me
