Law & Order

Conflict

No more law & order, that word says it all. It's Just one human being Denying another of self rule. The police ain't authority for al l they do Is Serve the state, they do their dirty work to make the people le arn, they Interrigate, discriminate, smash demos and assault, they sort o ut all queers And keep the wogs locked ina vault and they're here for protect ion but Protection for who? They all wear that same badge that says FUC K YOU ALL Oh yeah, they're here to maintain rights, they're here to keep the peace. They've also got a right to lock up and not release any form of rebel.They'll Even work against their own, because they bribe them very well and they may Also get a home. Protect their privelage no matter what the cos t, now you're Piggy in the middle and they couldn't give a toss. They shit ba ck and laugh Yes they laugh at you too, because they also wear a badge that says we use You!, It's Just the same old story of a state gone wrong, where possessions Matter and people don't be surprised that we've turned against you because if You take their side, it's FUCK YOU TOO!
