

Hadal

Conjurer

There is a world beneath us
Endless and wall-less
Yet we cannot enter
Mere sunlight fails to penetrate
Through the vast plains of nothingness

Unfit to venture its darkened fields

This place cannot be claimed
Inhabitants arcane
Serf to the boundless murk

This place cannot be claimed
This place cannot be claimed

These creatures thrive
In depths we cannot reach
These beasts survive
On prey they cannot see

More is known of galaxies than this
The wretched deep

There is a hell
Closer than Hell

The pressure crushes down
Where greatest mountains would drown
Down

This place cannot be claimed
This place cannot be claimed

This place cannot be claimed
