

Just Like That

The Connells

there you are and you can't believe a thing especially what you see.
Something kind of like a voice
makes its way across the desk.
You know we're gonna put you
in a cadillac.
You'll be laughing all the way
to the bank and back.
I really think I see you
Just like that.
Everybody wants to have it all.
At least there's a door a few feet away
from your chair.
There's a door and as you begin to stand
you take a last look at the man.
You know we're gonna put you
in a cadillac.
You'll be laughing all the way
to the bank and back.
I really think I see you
Just like that.
Everybody wants to have it all.
Nineteen and 70s Chevy tricked out a time or two I'll let the Nova
call the shots again.
