

Put Down

The Connells

Some miles to go
Radio
Curious
Morning song
Nothing wrong
Curious
Wanting to laugh
Photograph
Curious
Morning light- that's alright
I'm curious

I recognize the signs, I realize the price, the eyes that tyrannize (my very own device).

I'd reckoned I'd be wise,
I'd reckoned I'd be wise
Didn't I?
Didn't I?
Did you answer me with your head down, head down, or did you answer me at all?
Some miles to go

Curious

I recognize the signs, I realize the price, the eyes that tyrannize (my very own device).

I'd reckoned I'd be wise,
I'd reckoned I'd be wise
Didn't I?
Didn't I?

Did you answer me with your head down, head down,
or did you answer me at all?
And your loneliness is a put down, put down,
and this emptiness is all
