

Regret In The Morning

Conner Smith

Well, baby, I don't wanna kick it off on the wrong boot
'Cause you got a smile I could talk to for, like, forever
And, baby, we know it's about time the bar closes down
Yeah, when people start talking 'bout
Whether it's your place or mine
Yeah, I'll take you home
And kiss you on that front porch
But I ain't letting me get past that front door

'Cause I would love to stay the night
Not have to pull on out your drive
And say goodbye. But, baby, I don't wanna rush it
'Cause there's a story in those eyes
A keep safe heart I wanna make mine
And, girl, for you I wanna be more than a regret in the morning

Baby, I don't wanna be something that you try to forget
Wanna be the one your momma and your old man been praying for since y ou were a kid
I wanna know the secrets that you keep
The side of you that no one gets to see
And I'll be patient
'Cause, girl, you're worth the wait

'Cause I would love to stay the night
Not have to pull on out your drive
And say goodbye. But, baby, I don't wanna rush it
'Cause there's a story in those eyes
A keep safe heart I wanna make mine
And, girl, for you I wanna be more than a regret in the morning

Oh, a regret in the morning, yeah

I wanna be your rock when the world tries to break you
Tell you you're pretty when you taking off your make-up
So, call me in the morning when you wake up
I'll pick you up again

'Cause I would love to stay the night
Not have to pull on out your drive
And say goodbye. But, baby, I don't wanna rush it
'Cause there's a story in those eyes
A keep safe heart I wanna make mine
And, girl, for you I wanna be more than a regret in the morning

Oh, a regret in the morning
