

I'll Close My Eyes

Connie Francis

I'll close my eyes and make believe it's you
If other lips should speak of love divine
The stars were mine but I just reached for the moon
And found all too soon it was not to be mine

I'll close my eyes if you should pass me by
With someone new maybe who loves you too
I may be lonely but when I see the moon tonight
I'll close my eyes and make believe it's you

I may be lonely but when I see the moon tonight
I'll close my eyes and make believe it's you...
