

I Never Knew (What That Song Meant Before)

Connie Smith

I sang goodbye a thousand times
In a song to make words rhyme
Until today when you walked out the door
Honey I never knew what that song meant before

That pretty song about someone gone
Those catchy lines are touching home
I don't think that I could get through it anymore
Honey I never knew what that song meant before

And now the words go to my heart
Then I feel my teardrops start
When I sing these words you don't love me anymore
Honey I never knew what that song meant before

That pretty song about someone gone
Those catchy lines are touching home
I don't think that I could get through it anymore
Honey I never knew what that song meant before
