

It's Gonna Rain Today

Connie Smith

There's coldness in the wind the clouds have changed again
From blue to gray it's gonna rain today
It won't be long from now with tears my head will bow
You're going away it's gonna rain today
There's no way for me to stop this storm that's comin' on
'Cause the rain will pour as soon as you are gone
My dream of happiness will soon be loneliness inside to stay it
's gonna rain today
There's no way for me
You're going away it's gonna rain today
