

Never Love Again

Connie Smith

I've known many loves before I met you
But I'll never love again
I could probably know others too
But I'll never love again

I've kissed many lips before I kissed yours
But I'll never kiss again
I could probably kiss others too
But I'll never kiss again

After kissing your lips
I'll never kiss again
I'll never love again

Others have held me before I held you
But I'll never love again
I could probably hold others too
But I'll never love again

After knowing your love
I'll never love again
I'll never love again
I'll never love again
I'll never love again
