

Good To Me

Connie Talbot

The chapter is over, the last page turned
In the end, you left alone
There is no stopping this hurt inside
Can't believe I've got to move on

Cherish and hold on to the traces of you
Carry your words in my heart

You were my teacher, my brother, extraordinary friend
My angel believing in me til the end
Not my lover or father, still you gave me your all unselfishly
You were good to me

Take your head out of your hands and breathe you said to me
You gave me strength, I found my voice
I thank you endlessly

Cherish and hold on to the traces of you
Carry your words in my heart

You were my teacher, my brother, extraordinary friend
My angel believing in me til the end
Not my lover or father, still you gave me your all unselfishly
You were good to me
So good to me

I keep asking why, keep asking why
I don't wanna cry, don't wanna cry
I want you to stay, but I gotta say goodbye
I keep asking why, keep asking why
I don't wanna cry, don't wanna cry
I want you to stay, but I gotta say goodbye

You were my teacher, my brother, an extraordinary man
An angel in heaven, so safe in your hands
Not my lover or father still you gave me your all unselfishly
You were good to me

You were my teacher, my brother, an extraordinary friend
My angel believing in me til the end
Not my lover or father still you gave me your all unselfishly
You were good to me
So good to me
You were good to me
