

Like Everyone Else

Connie Talbot

Don't judge a book by its cover
Don't love one and not the other
Don't change yourself for somebody else
Everyone in the world can cry
But everyone in this world has smiled
Ride a star and make it a better day
Catch a ride over the moon
Glow bright like a summer in June
Surf a rainbow and you'll be on your way

Stand up off the ground and reach the sky
Push your limits and don't be shy
It's time to go right now, but don't be scared
It's about time you treat yourself like everyone else

Its not you who just has bad days
Everyone is special in their own way
Everyone has a tear once in a while Someone put you on this Earth for a reason that you might not k now
Who has the right to say that you're not loved?

Catch a ride over the moon
Glow bright like a summer in June
Surf a rainbow and you'll be on your way

Stand up off the ground and reach the sky
Push your limits and don't be shy
It's time to go right now, but don't be scared
It's about time you treat yourself like everyone else
Everyone else

Stand up on the ground and reach the sky
Push your limits and don't be shy
It's time to go right now, but don't be scared
It's about time you treat yourself like everyone else
Everyone else
Everyone else
Everyone else
Everyone else
