

Roses

Connie Talbot

You've taken more than just your cut
As if I haven't bled enough
Your eyes are gleaming
I'm barely breathing

You don't need no lullabies
You steal my dreams to sleep at night
I'm wrapped around your finger
Say I'm your everything but...

You don't really love me
Only wanna own me
You say it's only showbiz
As you pick up my Roses
No it wouldn't faze you
Head stone with my name
You wouldn't even notice
You'd only smell the Roses

Red velvet lipstick, overdone
You say the show must carry on
Bask in the glory
And then ignore me

You don't need no lullabies
You steal my dreams to sleep at night
I'm wrapped around your finger
Say I'm your everything but...

You don't really love me
Only wanna own me
You say it's only showbiz
As you pick up my Roses
No it wouldn't faze you
Head stone with my name
You wouldn't even notice
You'd only smell the Roses

Love from a thousand strangers
Feels more real to me
Think you're some kind of stranger
But in reality...
(Oh oh)

Oh you don't really love me
Only wanna own me
You say it's only showbiz
As you pick up my Roses
Oh no it wouldn't faze you
Head stone with my name
You wouldn't even notice
You'd only smell the Roses
