HoldUpAnti
Let's go, woo

From LA to New York out to London
Everywhere we go, we get the people jumpin'
Woah, I said I'm all about my Benjamins like Button
Yeah, yeah, I'm all about my Benjamins
Call your mom, call your dad, call your cousins (Brr)
Everybody know we get the people jumpin'
Yeah, I said I'm all about my Benjamins like Button
Yeah, yeah, I'm all about my Benjamins

Look, two things that I can't do
Can't stop being damn cute and the other thing is I can't lose
Studio is my office, I'm 'bout the beats like my man Schrute
I'm head and shoulders above them, they washed up like shampoo (Ayy, woah, uh)
Brand new but my fit be stayin' vintage
Sold so many tickets out in London that they probably think I'm British (Uh)
Catch me in the Nando's eating chicken, I'm so olympic (Right)
'Cause every time I'm on the track, I go the distance
So pass me the baton and then poof, I'm gone
Always hit me up with what they want, I do not respond
I leave them on read, shoe them off, that's a Louboutin (Woah)
So when they ask me where I'm moving, I say moving on (Damn)

From LA to New York out to London
Everywhere we go, we get the people jumpin'

Word
Look, I don't mean to be outta pocket
I fly first class so much they put me in the cockpit
And I can't walk in a mall 'cause I'm a hot topic
And I can't walk in a Hot Topic, I'm not gothic
You'll never catch me at a Aeropostale
I'm from a city where people actually care about style
They think they making moves, really they just merry-go-round
You know, I'm always taking flights, that's why my heads in the clouds (Bow)
