

Caveman

Connor Price

One hunnid
All I do is (Woah)

Make fire, I'm a caveman
Never drop the ball, got great hands
I was young, it was get rich or die tryin'
Now I'm grown, still rolling with the same plans
Had other plans or made two
Not one of them was struggle or just make do
Never satisfy, that's still the same dude
So when I made my first million had to make two

When I slide in on the beat, they like "Who is that?"
Coin flip, the way that I be turnin' heads
Side stage, stomach turnin', I'm a nervous wreck
'Til I heard the fans and the kick, pull the curtain back (Bow)
Big wig, I don't need a hairpiece
Big dog, no leash, they know I'm a rare breed
Big shoes, can't fill 'em this a rare feat
Big price, no sale, but I'm still carefree
Yeah, sweet sixteens for the diabetics
Any era, I don't care, I'm the guy that get it
If it's 80 42, then I'm a violinist
Still the illest, go ahead and check the hieroglyphics, yeah

Said it's impossible, huh? (It's impossible, huh?)
Aww, man (Aww, man)
You know if anyone can? (If anyone can?)
I can

Make fire, I'm a caveman
Never drop the ball, got great hands
I was young, it was get rich or die tryin'
Now I'm grown, still rollin' with the same plans
Had other plans or made two
Not one of them was struggle or just make do
Never satisfy, that's still the same dude
So when I made my first million, had to make two

Big hitter, baby, I'm in the fourth spot (Boom)
Been in this position, ain't a shortstop
Every song gold, my catalogue'll be Fort Knox
Thinking they can get in on this? Baby, of course not
They don't even know what it takes, this a lethal dose
Make it look easy, think they got it, they ain't even close (Nah)
Play Nintendo in Japan, baby, Wii Remote
Hailing in comparison, they lookin' like they seen a ghost (Boo)
Con and Nic
Went exactly how we thought it, there was not a twist
Saw exactly what we wanted and we got an itch
That's why we scratchin' off everything that's on the list
This is not a bid

Said it's impossible, huh? (It's impossible, huh?)
Aww, man (Aww, man)
You know if anyone can? (If anyone can?)
