

John Daly

Connor Price

Why didn't you let me know you were coming?
I wanted to surprise you

Money talkin' like we FaceTime daily (Hello?)
Ring, ring, ring, Tom Brady (What up?)
Going for the green, John Daly
Still want more out of it, can you blame me?
Uh, can you blame me? Uh, can you blame me?
Set the bar way too high, can you blame me?
Yeah, going for the green, John Daly
Still want more out of it, can you blame me?

Who the one that's doin' it better than us? (Woah)
Y'all stink, this a skunk, it's seven to none (Woah)
Yeah, I get what I want, that's what leverage does (Woah)
Said it was enough, but it's never enough (Uh)
All of y'all overpriced, but you sellin' over Price
Vegas hot, cold as ice, something like the Golden Knights
Big screen, poltergeist, I don't need a ghost to write
Got the numbers where I want 'em, this some loaded dice

Brick by brick, built the fortress (Mm)
Crib got big, it's enormous (Mm)
Whip got grip, it's performance (Mm)
All my kids, kids, kids got a fortune

Bring it to the judge, she gon' never say I'm innocent
Did it, then I did it again, ain't no coincidence
Did it with a minimal plan, there was no middleman
Did it with the little I had, it took some discipline
Givin' everything that I have, and never givin' in
Face to the sky, let the sunshine graze me
Uh, can you blame me? Uh, can you blame me?
Grateful for it, got me feeling so amazing
Ring, ring, ring, yeah, I run it like Sonic
Knuckles all shining like my fists got polished
Pinky ring on, that's an expensive promise
All y'all clowns, ironic 'cause you not it

Brick by brick, built the fortress (Mm)
Crib got big, it's enormous (Mm)
Whip got grip, it's performance (Mm)
All my kids, kids, kids got a fortune
