

Seven Days

Conor Maynard

Give me one more second, just admit it
I ain't ready to leave, yeah
This place is like a fairy tale, the concrete paradise
In my dreams, yeah, yeah
There's something 'bout the atmosphere, the ecstasy
It's calling on me, yeah
And I'm putting off my problems till tomorrow
If you know what I mean, yeah, yeah

Quitting is for losers so we're winning
And I ain't gonna give up on tonight
I guess I'm still looking for my limits
I got a good good heart with a bad bad mind

Heaven's waiting on me, my my my yeah
Seven days of the week, my my my yeah
I've been praying for someone to save my soul
'Cause I love it too much when I lose control
Heaven's waiting on me, my my my yeah
Seven days of the week, my my my yeah
I've been praying for someone to save my soul
'Cause I love it too much when I lose control

Heaven
Seven
I lose control
Heaven
Seven
I love control

Give me one more second, just a minute
'Cause I'm caught in the glow, yeah
This place is like a temple, a cathedral
Broken souls come and go, hey yeah
Emotions taking hold of me, controlling me
It's so typical, yeah
And I'm high as hell, got vertigo
Please tell me I'm not six feet below, yeah, yeah

Quitting is for losers so we're winning
And I ain't gonna give up on tonight
I guess I'm still looking for my limits
I got a good good heart with a bad bad mind

Heaven's waiting on me, my my my yeah
Seven days of the week, my my my yeah
I've been praying for someone to save my soul
'Cause I love it too much when I lose control
Heaven's waiting on me, my my my yeah
Seven days of the week, my my my yeah
I've been praying for someone to save my soul
'Cause I love it too much when I lose control

Heaven
Seven
I lose control
Heaven

Seven
I love control
