

NEWHEAVEN

Conquer Divide

I took a walk with the gods, flirted with the demons in my head
I got all I could want, but I can't find the meaning
No, oh, God I need a new heaven
Thought I had a voice, but I'm choking on the feeling
Clawed my way to the top, but I still can't reach it
Oh, God I need a new heaven

I'm losing my faith, and I can't be saved
Paid the price
Wore the crown
Drank the holy water just to spit it out
The higher I reach, the less I believe
Said the prayer
Took the vow
I did the time, now get me out
God, I need a new heaven

If I should die, before I wake
I need a new heaven for heaven's sake
If I should die, before I wake
I need a new heaven for heaven's sake

I put on a show, just to cover up who I am
And I just sold my soul, and it's not coming back
Oh, oh, God I need a new heaven
My dreams became a curse wrapped around my neck
There's no signs of life, and it's too late to turn back
Oh, God I need a new heaven

I'm losing my faith, and I can't be saved
Paid the price
Wore the crown
Drank the holy water just to spit it out
The higher I reach, the less I believe
Said the prayer
Took the vow
I did the time, now get me out
God, I need a new heaven

If I should die before I wake
I need a new heaven for heaven's sake
If I should die before I wake
I need a new heaven...
For heaven's sake

Be careful when you make a wish, because you just might get it

I'm losing my faith, and I can't be saved
Paid the price
Wore the crown
Drank the holy water, just to spit it out
The higher I reach, the less I believe
Said the prayer
Took the vow
I did the time, now get me out

God, I need a new heaven

God, I need a new heaven
God, I need a new heaven, heaven
For heaven's sake
