

Over It.

Conquer Divide

Never thought it would come to this
But damn your knife's deep in my chest, oh, no
But now I know
A dull blade, the point you missed
Won't cut me twice, I promise this, oh, no
Well, now you know

Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
Everybody sees that you just don't get it
Envy's gonna blind you if you let it
Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
Forgave you once, and you just spent it
Shot you twice, so you know that I meant it

You better stop and think twice
You brought a knife to a gunfight
Over it, get over it
Before I can't let it, I can't let it go
And all that venom that you can't hide
It's gonna kill you from the inside
Over it, get over it
Before I can't let it, I can't let it go
I can't let it, can't let it go, I can't let it

Never thought you'd see the day
Things turned around and went my way, oh, please
Such a tragedy
Success left a bitter taste
Sweet as the look that's on your face, you see
It was meant to be

Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
Tried to leave a mark but I'm gonna forget it
Dug your grave, and now you'll always regret it
Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
Betrayal is your game, and you still deny it
Never gonna win, hey, at least you tried it

You better stop and think twice
You brought a knife to a gunfight
Over it, get over it
Before I can't let it, I can't let it go
And all that venom that you can't hide
It's gonna kill you from the inside
Over it, get over it
Before I can't let it, I can't let it go
I can't let it, I can't let it go, I can't let it, I can't let it go
I can't let it, I can't let it go

I gave you one chance, and you just spent it
Now I'll shoot you twice so you know that I meant it

You better stop and think twice
You brought a knife to a gunfight
Over it, get over it
Before I can't let it, I can't let it go
And all that venom that you can't hide

It's gonna kill you from the inside
Over it, get over it
Before I can't let it, I can't let it go

You better stop and think twice
You brought a knife to a gunfight
Over it, get over it
Before I can't let it, I can't let it go
And all that venom that you can't hide
It's gonna kill you from the inside

Now I can't let it, I can't let it go
