

the INVISIBLE

Conquer Divide

One A.M. and I don't know why I'm here
Just a ghost in a hollowed-out room full of empty ears
Cause all your so-called friends are fake
And they don't see me anyway
Cause your perfect life's, a perfect lie, and I can't relate

On the outside we march on, in a world we don't belong
All the cuts and breaks, they make us who we are
Have you ever been left out, been faceless in the crowd
All the beautiful people, can't see who you are
We're so invisible, invisible
So invisible, invisible
I can see, I can see, I can see you in the dark

Twenty-three, and you don't know who you are Running around this city lighting fires with an empty heart
You don't remember what you said
But I remember how it felt
So when your perfect life comes crashing down, I won't be around

On the outside we march on
In a world we don't belong
All the cuts and the breaks, they make us who we are
Have you ever been left out
Been faceless in the crowd
All the beautiful people, can't see who you are

Woke up one day, you're on your own
Sweet twist of fate and now you know
What it feels like to be alone
Screaming out
Do you see us now

The INVISIBLE

On the outside we march on
In a world we don't belong
All the cuts and the breaks, they make us who we are
Have you ever been left out
Been faceless in the crowd
All the beautiful people, can't see who you are
We're so invisible, invisible
So invisible, invisible
I can see, I can see, I can see you in the dark
We're so invisible
But I can see you in the dark
