Conro

I know I've been searching for something
I know I'll find my way back home
But tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
'Cause I feel all alone

I've been right here before
Nothing new, just an internal war
But if you've got love to spare
Coming out a little worse for wear

My feelings
My feelings
My feelings
My feelings

My feelings
My feelings
My feelings
My feelings
My feelings

I've been thinking just a little too much
Not too sure if this is losing touch
If you think that I am worthy
How great would this world be
If I could throw away this crutch

I've been right here before
Nothing new, just an internal war
But if you've got love to spare
Coming out a little worse for wear

My feelings
My feelings
My feelings
My feelings

My feelings
My feelings
My feelings
My feelings
My feelings
All my feelings
All my feelings
All my feelings
All my feelings
