Love me
'Cause I don't think I love me anymore
Maybe I think too much, so I drink to rush
All my demons out the door
Tell me
Tell me that it's all inside my head
Call it OCD, to me, it's you not me
'Cause it's drivin' me mad

I don't think I'm losin' my mind
(I don't think I'm losin' my mind)
Buildin' all these walls over time

Every time I lose my way, I find you
I know that when feels starts to hit me
Know that you're the one to lift me
I find you
Yeah, I find you

(Yeah, I find you)
Yeah, I find you

Find me
Did I lose myself in pride?
My insecurities hauntin' my memories
'Cause I'm holdin' them inside
Let go
Put my thoughts back into words
Feels like I let me down, ain't got no golden crown
I'm just tryin' to be heard

I don't think I'm losin' my mind
(I don't think I'm losin' my mind)
Buildin' all these walls over time

Every time I lose my way, I find you
I know that when feels starts to hit me
Know that you're the one to lift me
I find you
Yeah, I find you

(Yeah, I find you)
Yeah, I find you

Every time I lose my mind
I used to hold it all inside
Every time I lose my mind
(Yeah, I find you)
Every time I lose my mind
I used to hold it all inside
Every time I lose my mind

Every time I lose my way, I find you
I know that when feels starts to hit me
Know that you're the one to lift me
I find you
(I find you)

(Yeah, I find you)
Yeah, I find you
