

Without You

Conro

I'm painting the sky with the candy green
And the clouds with silver lines
I will never say what you meant to me
When you ask what's on my mind

I'll cover it up with the dust
That's settled down after all this time
Every bit of love's turned to rusty metal
From all the tears I've cried

You took over my brain
Made me feel insane
Trying to relate to ya
But everything has changed
I am not the same
Baby I can see through ya

When you hurt me
See my world revolved around you
But I'm learning
That I'm better off without you
Yeah I'm better off without you
Yeah I'm better off without you

Yeah I'm better off without you

(Without you)

So I'm painting the sky with the candy green
And the clouds with silver lines
Forgetting the time you were holding me
And you told me that you were mine

You took over my brain
Made me feel insane
Trying to relate to ya
But everything has changed
I am not the same
Baby I can see through ya

When you hurt me
See my world revolved around you
But I'm learning
That I'm better off without you
Yeah I'm better off without you
Yeah I'm better off without you

Yeah I'm better off without you
But I'm learning
