

No Place Like Home

Consequence

To the 192, where you at?
To Linden boulevard, where you at?
This is Queens all day, so where you at?

Deep down I, I found I
Found my way back home
'Cause home is where your heart is (Yeah)
Even when it's pitch black (Huh)
Yeah, home is where your heart is (Oh yeah)
Man, tell me where my hood at (Oh)

When I'm somewhere out of town on a quest to get paid
And I think about my hood where my friends still stay
There's a voice inside my heart that doesn't go away
And every time he talks this is what he's got to say
Queens represent every day all-day
I'm off to Laurelton better known as L.A
I'm from St. Albans son, not too far from Cool J
Shoutout to Hollis yo, home to Run DMC
Peter piper picked a pepper
But you had to keep a nine under your leather
Yeah, life has gotten better as the years come
But of course, my dog's voice brings me back to square one

Deep down I, I found I
Found my way back home
'Cause home is where your heart is (Yeah)
Even when it's pitch black (Huh)
Yeah, home is where your heart is (Oh yeah)
Man, tell me where my hood at (Oh)

I hadn't been home in a while but I'm always there in spirit
The real ones know, they could it feel it in my lyrics
Reminisce got me shedding a tear, but whenever I miss my homie
This is what I hear
Straight legends in the Q, we live and die for the mic
Stick together like them Haitian folks in Cambria Heights
Queens, son, the home of the Mets, A Tribe Called Quest
You know I got my money on the boulevard of Linden
Where we used to kick routines and the presence was fittin'
Where cops would kill teens and somehow get acquitted
My legacy's cemented and etched in stone
But no matter where I go there's no place like home

Deep down I, I found I
Found my way back home
'Cause home is where your heart is (Yeah)
Even when it's pitch black (Huh)
Yeah, home is where your heart is (Oh yeah)
Man, tell me where my hood at (Oh)

I swear every time I'm homesick
There's a little voice in my heart that says
Remember- remember- remember
Remember who you are (Uh-huh)
Remember where you from
And remember what you represent (Yeah)

And best believe I always will family
And I'll never forget

Deep down I, I found I
Found my way back home
'Cause home is where your heart is (Yeah)
Even when it's pitch black (Huh)
Yeah, home is where your heart is (Oh yeah)
Man, tell me where my hood at (Oh)
