Why don't you-

Most baby mommas ain't caught or undefeated
Raise your hand if you been caught cheatin'
It didn't matter which stripper they put in front of me
I knew that marryin' my girl would live comfortably
That's monogamy, the way it's meant to be
But I was used to askin', "Is there a friend for me?"
A work in progress that'll probably end up in the Lourve
But in the meantime, it seems I got a lot to lose Divorce ain't cheap, neither is child support
A woman scorned'll get sympathy when the child's involved
And for what, a moment that ends up settin' sail?
But every time they set me up they set me up to fail

Why don't you free me from here on

Why don't you-

Bitches is crazy
See, they want you to need them
But if you actually needed them, they would want nothing to do with you
Not a motherf*cking thing
See that's the game
Find a man that don't need you, and convince him that he needs you
I let this bitch convince me that I needed her
And as time goes on, he starts thinking (Woah)

Free me from here on
Why don't you free me from here on
Why don't you free me from here on
