

Your Luck's Gonna Run Out Soon

Consequence

Don't get me reminiscent 'bout my trap years
I used to keep a stash right behind the back stairs
Just to get the number 2 Jordans - the black pair
But it felt like I couldn't get my stacks here
So I moved to DC to have a black mirror
And they also had some jokes [?] crack era
And I knew from me trynna get my cash [?]
That eventually we would have the class there
Well that's fair if you trynna move a pack here
Cause that's the main reason why we rub the cats ear
And that's the reason why we had some problems last year
Cause some country boys'd probably leave your ass back there
With a Cadillac Capare and now the facts are clear
To get back on my square I did what they wouldn't dare
But living without a care will shorten your time here
Maybe that's the vibe that I'm feeling in the air

Your luck's gonna run out soon
Your luck's gonna run out soon, oh!
Your luck's gonna run out soon
Cause when these are the consequences, it ain't safe to assume bet
Your luck's gonna run out soon
Your luck's gonna run out soon, oh!
Your luck's gonna run out soon
S-Staying alive was no jive

Hey don't make me spill the beans about these rap stars
Half of them be perpetrating like the trap stars
But when the guns get to busting from the black cars
You can watch and see 'em run as fast as track stars
Yo the facts are, though they act hard
Most of them ain't even welcome in their backyard
And as the black card got taxed hard
[?] used to push up in the cash bar
And the well and water rains [?] bar
You can do them halfer use a flashcard
Man these fools [?] cards
Cause when they sitting at the lights inside their Jaguars
And the boys roll up who like to jack cars
Man the bullshit they on mean Jack Pot
So when they directing you through the back blocks
That means it's time to take it off like padlocks

Your luck's gonna run out soon
Your luck's gonna run out soon, oh!
Your luck's gonna run out soon
Cause when these are the consequences, it ain't safe to assume bet
Your luck's gonna run out soon
Your luck's gonna run out soon, oh!
Your luck's gonna run out soon
S-Staying alive was no jive
S-Staying alive was no jive

Your luck's gonna run out soon
Your luck's gonna run out soon, oh!
Your luck's gonna run out soon
Cause when these are the consequences, it ain't safe to assume bet
