

There was a time in my life
I searched to be free
I looked to the mountains
I looked to the sea
But it wasn't until when
You healed my heart within
Your amazing grace is here 'til the end

Like the song says
So many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
I'm at a crossroads
And there's no signs that I'm aware
Just to know you're in my heart
And you'll be there

And I know I can't be done
Like I know as sure as the sun
Your grace will find me
When the morning comes

Like the song says
So many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
I'm at a crossroads
And there's no signs that I'm aware
Just to know you're in my heart
And you'll be there

Oh, you're in my heart

Like the song says
So many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
I'm at a crossroads
And there's no signs that I'm aware
Just to know you're in my heart
And you'll be there
And just to know you're in my heart
And you'll be there
