

Commencement

Conway the Machine

Peace. The good. The bad. The terrible. This right here is a parable, you see. In a class full of F students, the C student will always shine. If everybody else is failin', the kid that got the D average over there, you know what sayin'? He always gonna be the valedictorian. Don't mean he'll see as good or smart or intelligent. It means that that's the king of the dummies over there. You see, people think they dope as shit, but they ain't even go to the right school. That means that they didn't get the proper education. So that's why you don't compare them with us. The abyss to everybody else, nah'mean? 'Cause over here, we have metal detectors in our school, you know I'm sayin'? Where you had to stay strapped up. You have to stay strapped up in this school over here, you know I'm sayin'? Boom. Bitches snuck razor blades in their pussy. Gem stars in their pussy, my nigga. It's wild over here at this school right here. Boom. The curriculum includes survival. Just somethin' the other motherfuckers don't know about. They just don't know about the shit. Niggas get guns just 'cause they think that shit cute, not knowin' a nigga would run up in your crib to steal those guns. There's a whole bunch of niggas out there whose job or profession is robbin'. And they goin' after guns. You'll get your head blown off for them shits. You see, over here, you can get a 4.0 over here. You can get even more than 4.0 over here. Take honor classes, nah'mean? So, in a class full of F students, the D student will always shine. And the curriculum is bullshit. It's a different level over here. If you listenin' to this right now, you finally listenin' to the 4.0 niggas. You know I'm sayin'? The smart niggas. Real shit. But it's different over here. This the valedictorian shit right here. Them niggas only can get Ds. That D stands for deez nuts. Eat a dick. Skit God
