

Dinner Plate

Conway the Machine

Griselda, by Fashion Rebels

Aye yo

The razor blade under the tongue

Piru white Panamera, I was playin' some punk

Test the yay before you pay, rub a taste on your gums

And if it's straight give me my cake and we done like it fills gloves yo, we choppin' keys, cop and squeeze

He tried to walk me so I shot his knees

Yellow diamonds all on the Rolley sittin' on top of sleeves

Popped me, they caught me 20 blocks from Lee's

Please Allah can you save me? Down 'til four and a baby

Nah I'm just playin', MAC 11 sprayin', invasion

Thirty shell casings layin' on the pavement, Lord

They save the Devil wears Dolce

Hitler wears Armes skill for a trophy

Send a Kike to hammer and spray

Tell him blam it away and hit whatever stand in the way

Yay, we got yayo on the dinner plate

Yay, we got yayo on the dinner plate

Yay, we got yayo on the dinner plate

Yay, we got yayo on the dinner plate
