Conway the Machine

Huh

Yeah

Huh

Know what I'm saying?

To be the most sincerest, I'd be embarrassed

If I was one of those kids wearing gold chains that 10 carat

Before a move get made, I got to give clearance

And the plug love me more than his parents

It's insurance if it's interference

I'm allergic to swine, I break out in hives if the pig's nearest

My brother died, but he here in spirit,

Cause he left 30 bricks for me to inherit

My gun old, but pretty like Meyer face

And my dope take things to a higher place

Know we OD when you see his eye dilate

My trap ain't got no chimney, but it's a fireplace

I was 15 upstate in barbed wire gates

Now I'm 38 with a crib that sit by a lake

4 a.m., and my shooters is wide awake

That mean you gonna die early if you violate

Chopping coke on China plates

That was 18 years ago, we don't do minor way

They try and get me on wire tape

Rats told back home, and then they moved to them Carolina states

A lot of y'all speak the feds

Sometimes you gotta stay low to increase the bread

Me, I always stay low, because the streets is dead

I disappear once a year like Easter eggs
