

Draggin' Chains

Conway Twitty

Once I had a dream and my whole life seemed like a vision but it wasn't so
Everyday's a trap and I can't get out of this prison Mr Average Joe
Well I punch the clock and I hate it so go directly to hell don't pass go
It's a cryin' shame when you go through life draggin' chains
Lord draggin' chains

Well you can shed a tear the next sound you hear is hope dissolving it's a passing thing
While my payments mount all my charge accounts are still revolving the a American dream
Now you've got your arrangement and I've got mine
Playin' follow the leader gettin' further behind
Well your soul sure pains when you go through life draggin' chains
Lord draggin' chains

Uh huh huh (uh huh huh)

Lord I tell my lies dressed in my disguise and it's all boring but it's the thing to do
Well I'm tired of trouble make mine a double while you're pouring I think I'll have a few
Now I punch the clock and I hate it so go directly to hell don't pass go
It's a cryin' shame when you go through live draggin' chains
Lord draggin' chains

Draggin' chainnns draggin' chains
(Draggin' chainnns draggin' chains draggin' chains draggin' chains)
