

One In A Million

Conway Twitty

I know you're tired a picking up the pieces of my life
And if the truth was known I'll bet you're tired of being my wife
And I know there's only so much hurt one girl can stand
And still go on believing in her man

But you're one in a million and you're mine
Heaven knows a girl like you is hard to find
And if I could only find the words I'd say
I love you a thousand million ways

I know you know that I could never love no one but you
But that don't change the way you feel when I do the things I do
But I get by because you try so hard to understand
And to accept this weakness in your man

But you're one in a million and you're mine...
