

What's Another Goodbye

Conway Twitty

Don't you worry so much about it
I knew someday you'd say goodbye
No need in crying, we both can do without it
And, I'll fall in love again bye and bye.

What's a penny to a millionaire?
What's another seashell to the sea?
It's okay, I'll probably survive it
What's another goodbye to a fool like me?

I just can't fight it, I'm a lover
I'm a sucker for the moon and a lonely night
I'll keep on going through one heart after the other
And, hope someday I'll get it right.

What's a penny to a millionaire?
What's another seashell to the sea?
It's okay, I'll probably survive it
What's another goodbye to a fool like me?

Go on, I know you've got to do it
So, go on, I'm gettin' good at living through it.

What's a penny to a millionaire?
What's another seashell to the sea?
It's okay, I'll probably survive it
What's another goodbye to a fool like me?
