

You Know Just What I'd Do

Conway Twitty

Conway Twitty & Loretta Lynn

If we lost all we had
Would I walk your rocky road
Or take a different path
Would I sell my pride for you
If you asked me to walk the streets
You know just what I'd do.

Would your child have a home
If it should be borne of love other than our own
Would I still stand by you
Knowin' you've loved someone else
You know just what I'd do.

If my love for you meant giving up my life
Would I lay it down for you
And if you were blind
Would I give you my sight
You know just what I'd do.

Would I live with the scar
That you carry in your heart
From another woman's war
Would I mend your wounds for you
If I knew you needed me
You know just what I'd do...
