

Rather Be

Cookiee Kawaii

(Trillz, you ready?)
(Al on the beat)

Sitting home at night I cry
Thinking bout the time I tried
I'd rather be with you
I'd rather be with you
Sitting home at night I cry
Thinking bout the time I tried
I'd rather be with you
I'd rather be with you

When you hear the bass drop don't stop
Let the music take control
Feel the bass drop right through the speakers
And go right through your soul
Let me see you do a dance
From Tokyo to Paris, France
Let's make a movie
You know that this beat is groovy

Hit it from the back, hit it from the back
Hit it from the back, hit it from the back
Hit it from the back, hit it from the back
Hit it from the back that botty get smacked
Hit it from the back, hit it from the back
Hit it from the back, hit it from the back
Hit it from the back, hit it from the back
Hit it from the back that kitty cat

That work, that work (Hit it from the back)
That work, that work
That work, that work (Hit it from the back)
That work, that work
That work, that work (Hit it from the back)
That work, that work (Hit it from the back)
That work, that work (Hit it from the back)

Let's make a movie, movie
Movie, movie, movie, movie
Movie, movie (Can you handle that?)
Movie, movie (Then work, then work)
Movie, movie (Then work, then work)
Movie, movie (Then work, then work)
Movie, movie (Then work, then work)

When I throw it back, back
Throw it back, back
Throw it back, back
Throw it back, back
When I throw it back, back
Throw it back, back
Throw it back, back
Throw it back, back
When I throw it

Sitting home at night I cry

Thinking bout the time I tried
I'd rather be with you
I'd rather be with you
Sitting home at night I cry
Thinking bout the time I tried
