

Buy the Truth

Cool Hand Luke

(Proverbs 23:23)

If I had a dime for every dollar I've wasted trying to be happy
I could retire because I would be miserably wealthy Then I'd have the time to see that I'd thrown out my life like the paper
And maybe the time by God's grace to start it all over and

Buy the Truth
Though it costs all you have (Proverbs 4:7)
Buy the truth
Don't ever sell it out
What good is a tool in the hand of a fool if you don't buy wisdom?
(Proverbs 17:16)

If I sold You out, I could make enough money to live for a while
Walk in the room and important people would smile Hold my head proud, and know I had made the best business decision
Wave at the crowds who give me their money like it was religion

Buy the Truth
Though it costs all you have
Buy the truth
Don't ever sell it out
What good is a tool in the hand of a fool if you don't buy wisdom?

Please, don't make yourself at home
Please, don't make yourself at home
Please, don't make yourself at home
Please, don't make yourself at home
The Land of opportunity
And superficiality
Syncretized theology
A compromised reality

God, touch our eyes
Expose the lies
That waste our lives
And block the light
A future hope (Proverbs 24:14)
That we'll wake up
And see the Truth for what's it's worth

Buy the Truth
Though it costs all you have
Buy the truth
Don't ever sell it out
What good is a tool in the hand of a fool if you don't buy wisdom?
