

Case of Emergency

Cool Hand Luke

This night should last forever
By myself but not alone
Reality will stab me

Will i have the strength to carry on
Will i bow to the world
Will i be chained by my flesh
Will i bow to this world

Without the help of something self
The pain of waking form a dream
I must believe
I think i saw your hands
I think i almost reached your outstretched arms
With the sun comes the fear
Lighting all things unseen
And wisping me away fro You
Why do i have to embrace the love of Christ
