

Jack Without You

Cooper Alan

Sometimes I wonder
What life would be like
If I played the Mega Millions
And I got all 6 right
Well I'd quit my job
Tell my boss he can shove it
I wouldn't even like it
I'd love it

I'd have a
Truck with a hitch and a hitch with a trailer
Have a trailer that I park on a dock with no neighbors
Spend my days on the lake in the shade sippin' makers
In my Carolina blue pontoon
Pontoon would have a captain and my own bartender
Bartender ties the bait while I catch my dinner
Catfish with a candle under that full moon
But it wouldn't mean jack without you
Nah, jack without you

('Cause it wouldn't mean jack without you)

Man, I wonder what the rich folks
Are all doing tonight
Yeah I reckon I'll never know
But as for me, myself and I
I'd still drink cheap beer
From a golden glass
I'd buy an AC Kubota
Just to mow my own grass

Next to my
Truck with a hitch and a hitch with a trailer
And a trailer that I park on a dock with no neighbors
Spend my days on the lake in the shade sippin' makers
In my Carolina blue pontoon
Pontoon would have a captain and my own bartender
Bartender ties the bait while I catch my dinner
Catfish with a candle under that full moon
Just wouldn't mean jack without you
Nah, jack without you

Nah, jack without you
Nah, jack without
You in the truck
With your pretty little feet on the dash
Well I'm down to ride forever
Long as you're down to have a big ole...

Truck with a hitch and a hitch with a trailer
And a trailer that I park on a dock with no neighbors
Spend my days on the lake in the shade sippin' makers
In my Carolina blue pontoon
Pontoon would have a captain and my own bartender
Bartender ties the bait while I catch my dinner
Catfish with a candle under that full moon
Just wouldn't mean jack without

To you

Two huge houses on the hills, I ain't talkin' LA
One next to Ric Flair, one next to Bill Gates
Spend a little cash, stack the rest to the roof
But it wouldn't mean jack without you
Nah, jack without you
