Cooper Alan

You wouldn't know it by looking at me
But I am the epitome of
Low key and humility, yeah

Gonna let the cat outta the bag
About the best dang girl that I ever had Got my heart spinning round like a new Maytag
Pardon me while I humble brag, but

She's the classic yin to my yang
Fireworks, she's the whole shebang
She's coconut pie with lemon meringue
She can make me drop everything

She's a heat wave in January
She's the kind that ya wanna marry
And come to think, yeah the only thing
That we ain't got in sync
Is she likes pink umbrella drinks

I myself am a light beer man
In the bottle or in the can
She's who she is and I'm just who I am

Usually I don't kiss and tell
I never felt this way about anyone else
Like a summertime snow cone, I just melt
And I can't help myself, but

She's the classic yin to my yang
Fireworks, she's the whole shebang
She's coconut pie with lemon meringue
She can make me drop everything

And come to think, yeah the only thing

Give her a pretty glass with a bendy straw
Throw a cherry in it and she's in heaven, y'all

She's the classic yin to my yang
Fireworks, she's the whole shebang
She's coconut pie with lemon meringue
She can make me drop everything
