

Engine Revver

Corb Lund

Oh, engine revver, don't you know your engine sounds real mean
Even though it ain't the fastest car I have ever seen Oh, engine revver, don't you know your engine wasn't built for speed

But that's okay because it's only worth that gasoline scream

Oh, engine revver
Don't you know that your seats aren't made...
Of leather
Oh, engine revver
Don't you know that your seats aren't made...
Of leather

(Don't ya know I wanna tell ya that, uh....)

They'll hear ya coming when you're still a dozen city blocks aw ay
You're moving slow and that's all right 'cause you don't mind t o make 'em wait
Oh, engine revver, he's a'comin' don't ya hear, that's what the y'll say
Plus ya got that chain and piece of pipe that's in the trunk fo r just in case

Oh, engine revver
Don't you know that your seats aren't made...
Of leather
Oh, engine revver
Don't you know that your seats aren't made...
Of leather
