

So With That

Cordae

I'm so with that shit, I'm so with that shit
Want some me, I said, I'm so with that shit
I'm so with that shit (Kid)
Uh

Seen that look in your eyes, something I wouldn't advise
She was with my while I was workin' and cookin' them pies
I showed her I was insecure, she mistook it for pride
And I'll admit, I fucked them girls, I shouldn't have lied
Why you countin' my flaws? Screams is drowned in the walls
And when I needed extra cash, you was down to withdraw
You even let me drive your car while you was at work
And all you ask is for my Instagram password
We argue all the time, I let you have the last word
"He ain't never gon' be shit" that was your Dad's words
Understand your frustration, you demandin' replacement
You deserve so much better than my scandal relation

Said she wanna freak
I said I'm so with that shit, I'm so with that shit
Said she want some me
I said I'm so with that shit, I'm so with that shit

Okay, you worthy of most of the honor, plus the Dolce Gabbana
While I was always there, always drivin' your Hyundai Sonata
And never left a drop of gas in it
Your friends is tellin' you I'm bad business
That comes with mad interest
That don't change the fact you love me 'cause I'm adventurous
Finally got the shit was s'posed to buy you last Christmas
But it was perfect timin', I'm always mad late
Plus I'm a little low on cash, so baby, have faith
Make it worth it I promise, but at first let be honest
Whoever thought we'd make it this far, don't mind my astonish
She think you out of my league
See my failures, but you couldn't be prouder of me
It's why I say she-

Said she wanna freak
I said I'm so with that shit, I'm so with that shit
Said she want some me
I said I'm so with that shit, I'm so with that shit
And she don't wanna waste no time
I said I'm so with that shit, I'm so with that shit
But know the sun gon' shine
I said I'm so with that shit, I'm so with that shit

La, la, la, la
I'm so with that shit
La, la, la, la
