

Break Like That

Corey Kent

I know you got your reasons
I know you got your doubts
Know you're wanting both your feet in
But I know why you keep one out
Once you've had your whole world
Shattered like stained glass, it never looks the same again
Careful with your heart, girl
I can't change the past, but
If you trust it in my hands

I won't let it break like that
I won't let it hit the floor like it did before
I won't let it get one scratch
You ain't gotta hold it back anymore
Oh, I know your heart of gold's been broken in the past
But I won't let it break
I won't let it break
I won't let it break like that

I wanna set it on fire
Let it burn up like it never has
I wanna send it like a freight train
Barely hanging on the tracks

But I won't let it break like that
I won't let it hit the floor like it did before
I won't let it get one scratch
You ain't gotta hold it back anymore
Oh, I know your heart of gold's been broken in the past
But I won't let it break
I won't let it break
I won't let it break like that
No

I won't let it break
I won't let it crash
If it starts to fall, you can let it fall fast
But I won't let it break like that

I won't let it break like that
I won't let it hit the floor like it did before
I won't let it get one scratch
You ain't gotta hold it back anymore
Oh, I know your heart of gold's been broken in the past
I won't let it break
I won't let it break
I won't let it break like that

I won't let it break
I won't let it break
I won't let it break like that
