

Hood Of That Car

Corey Kent

Sometimes it happens
'Cause a friend has a friend
And sometimes it happens
At the bar at 2 A.M.
Aw, but most the time it happens
When you finally stop tryin'
But for you and I, it happened when we finally stopped driving

We were blue jean dreamers
Too young to know hearts
A couple don't-stop believers
Going 90 in park
You and me, hot and heavy
On the front of that Chevy
Still burnin' from that first-time spark
Yeah, we fooled around and fell in love
On the hood of that car

Used my sweatshirt as a pillow
As we looked up at the stars
When it started getting colder I just wrapped you in my arms
Said forget about tomorrow
Didn't wanna think that far
Didn't know it at the moment
But we were off to a pretty good start

We were blue jean dreamers
Too young to know hearts
A couple don't-stop believers
Going 90 in park
You and me, hot and heavy
On the front of that Chevy
Still burnin' from that first-time spark
Yeah, we fooled around and fell in love
On the hood of that car

We were blue jean dreamers
Too young to know hearts
A couple don't-stop believers
Going 90 in park
You and me, hot and heavy
On the front of that Chevy
Still burnin' from that first-time spark

We were blue jean dreamers
Too young to know hearts
A couple don't-stop believers
Going 90 in park
You and me, hot and heavy
On the front of that Chevy
Still burnin' from that first-time spark
Yeah, we fooled around and fell in love
Yeah, we fooled around and fell in love
Yeah, we fooled around and fell in love
On the hood of that car
