

So Far

Corey Kent

So far, it's been an uphill climb
Still got dues to pay, I'm working overtime
So far, I've heard more "no" than "yes"
Yeah, I know the odds, but I'm a gambling man

Yeah, I've been through hell, it's been a hell of a ride
Been spinning my wheels, but now I'm hitting my stride
Got these feet off the ground but still ain't reached those stars
Who'd have thought a dream could take a boy from Bixby so far?

So far, it's been tough on you and me
Wishing Dallas, Texas, didn't have to be
So far, but girl, we make it work
Won't stop until you get that life that you deserve

Yeah, 'cause I've been through hell, it's been a hell of a ride
Been spinning my wheels, but now I'm hitting my stride
Got these feet off the ground but still ain't reached those stars
Who'd have thought a dream could take a boy from Bixby so far?
So far

Yeah, all the homesick days, all the up-all-nights
Yeah, it's all worth it standing here tonight

Yeah, I've been through hell, it's been a hell of a ride
Been spinning my wheels, but now I'm hitting my stride
Got these feet off the ground but still ain't reached those stars
Who'd have thought a dream could take a boy from Bixby so far?

So far, it's been an uphill climb
Still got dues to pay, I'm working overtime
