

Feet Wet

Corey Smith

I got my sunglasses on
Yeah, it's all about the attitude
Like life's a long summer
And the world's just a big round swimming pool

Today I ain't in a rush
The water ain't going nowhere
So I'm taking it thru a polarized lens
To soften the glare

The pavement gets hot
It's been burning my soul
So I'm sittin' on a ledge
With my legs hanging down in the watering hole

I could take a plunge, but hey why bother?
Everything looks fuzzy when you're underwater
I could hold my breath, but I ain't gettin' in over my head
I'm good right now, I'm just gettin' my feet wet (uh huh)
Gettin' my feet wet

Gently down the stream
Yeah, I'm keeping it cool
Like life's a lazy river
And I'm floating down it on my inner tube

Swirling around
Taking in the scenery
I hear the birds in the trees
And it sounds like they're all singing to me

I'm half asleep
But I'm wide awake
And everything in the scene seems more like a dream
Without regret I take

I could take a plunge, but hey why bother?
Everything looks fuzzy when you're underwater
I could hold my breath, but I ain't gettin' in over my head
I'm good right now, I'm just gettin' my feet wet

Yeah, I remember when
I'd jump in head first off the diving board
Hey daddy, look at me
Can you believe I don't need those wings anymore

Learning to swim
It makes us brave
But the older we get
The more we sit back and let the kids make waves

I could swim like a fish, but hey why bother?
I got a drink in my hand, it's going down like water
I ain't afraid of drowning, but I ain't getting in over my head
Not today (ah uh uh)
I'm good right now
I'm good right now

I'm good right now
Getting my feet wet, yeah (uh huh)
Getting my feet wet
