

Halfway Home

Corey Smith

I packed up a month long suitcase
Goodbye. Daddy's gotta go
West bound all the way
'Till the highway runs into the coast, yeah
Bus call ATL
Load it up, get the trailer hitched
By the time I get to bed
I'll already be missing you, kids

But we'll meet up in Sacramento
One show then two days off
We'll rent a car, go up to Tahoe
They say it's beautiful in fall
Yeah, we'll have fun in California
And I'll be halfway home
Halfway home

Be good to your mama please
Don't give her any attitude
Don't make me waste a phone call
Having to get on to you
I hate I'm missing all your football games
The talent show at the middle school
But your mama's gonna video
So, wherever I am, I can cheer for you

'Till we catch up in Sacramento
Two weeks ain't all that long
We'll end up in San Francisco
Gonna cross the Golden Gate with y'all
Yeah, we'll have fun in California
And I'll be halfway home
Yes I will

This might seem like my choice to you
But leaving's something that your dad has gotta do
And its nothing we can't make it through Just gotta keep on looking forward to

Meeting up in Sacramento
One show then two days off
You'll fly out of San Francisco
And I'll keep rollin' on, yeah
But we'll have fun in California
And I'll be halfway home
Yeah, we'll have fun in California, boys
And I'll be halfway
Halfway home

Halfway home, yes I will
