The One

Corneille

I wasn't expecting you
So excuse me if I'm a little unprepared

I wasn't expecting you so soon
Now I'm in way over my head

You've had your heart broken once
And you've broken a few yourself
That means you know all about these kinds of things

I, on the other hand, am struggling
To make some sense out of these strange feelings

I'm dealing with insecurity, jealousy
And all sorts feelings

I'm playing hard to get
To save what's left of my defense
But you, you see straight through these kinds of things
You know all about these kinds of things

I don't know how to do this
I've never loved before
I'm struck and truly clueless
But I know this for sure
You see, I am done looking
Yes I am done searching
I've got a crazy feeling that
You are the one
I've got a crazy feeling that
You are the one

You're everything I ever dreamed of
So excuse me if I'm not showing off my mess

It's hard for me to show you my bad card
When you're the one I'm trying hard to impress

Just give me a little time baby
Just give me some time to learn about
All these kinds of things
Have a little patience baby

I don't know how to do this
I've never loved before
I'm struck and truly clueless
But I know this for sure
You see, I am done looking
Yes I am done searching

I'm pushing thirty and it's my first time falling
I only had to care for me

I've had no warning
But let me say

That I will find my way

I always have, I always have

I don't know how to do this
I've never loved before
I'm struck and truly clueless
But I know this for sure
You see, I am done looking
Yes I am done searching
I've got a crazy feeling that
You are the one
I've got a crazy feeling that
You are the one

You are the one

I've got a crazy feeling that
You are the one
I've got a crazy feeling that

You are the one

You are the one
I've got a crazy feeling that
You are the one
I've got a crazy feeling that

You are the one
