

A Quest to Believe (A Call to the Void)

Corrosion of Conformity

If the pure didn't hate you
You know they'd have to create you
You've been forged from their fears
Another myth drowns in tears
A loyal opposition
Another failed inquisition
Breeds potential victims
That make fearful decisions

You keep on crawling
Across that line
You know Deathwish Man
Your wish ain't mine

Lay judgement to waste
Beneath odd numbered days
Death cannot please you
It's life that evades you
A question to believe
What you cannot deceive
The hour is upon you
There is no reprieve

Deathwish Man
I'm leaving you be
Gone is the shadow
You cast over me

Another life in the shadows
Deathwish Man going blind
