

Brand New Sleep

Corrosion of Conformity

In the beginning maybe you were born to follow
Singing everybody else's song
Now you want one for your own

Oh, the sky comes apart
So you depart
For a new start in the winter's heart
In the winter's heart

Respond in kind with the other free thinking sheep
Join their refrain and awaken in a brand new sleep

Oh the sky comes apart

So you depart
For a new start in the winter's heart

Awaken

Now you have your dream redeemer
Deliver you if you keep believing

Now you have your dream redeemer
Deliver you if you keep believing
