

Broken down from a life unsteady
A tale already known
Pierce the dawn and the Lord breathes heavy
Upon your burning soul, alright

Innocent and heartless
Delusion by your side
Blinded by reality
Can you stand the test of time?
Stand the test of time

Forget to feel and unfold what's real
The rules, they don't apply
Wings appear as your death draws near Reaching for the sky

Eternity is long gone
Delusion overdrive
Driven by the darkness
Now the thief has stole your prime
Eternal Losing Mind

Schizophrenic eclipse
Bites the tongue, steals the light
Monolithic madness
Vertigo taking flight
Eternal Losing Mind

Praise the fear, no end is near
You're begging for the lesser
When triumph comes you remain undone
Does the distant life seem better?

Eternity is long gone
Delusion overdrive
Driven by the darkness
Now the thief has stole your prime
Eternal losing mind
